

Complete List of Berenstain Bears Books

[Printer-Friendly PDF Version]

Copyright © Bradley Mariska, 2024

Welcome to the world's most complete bibliography of the Berenstain Bears book series! This catalog of storybooks, activity books, and ephemera has been an ongoing personal project for over 20 years. I am indebted to fellow collectors Jeremy Gloff and Gypsy Todd, who have helped immensely in compiling and editing this list over many years.

It is my desire to help fans and collectors have a complete and accurate book list that is easily accessible at all times. The document is updated annually to reflect additions to the series (the books are still being published!), corrections, and the expansion of editorial notes.

IMPORTANT NOTE:

The latest version of the list can be found at www.BerenstainBearsCollectors.com - this printer-friendly version is updated less frequently.

I hope this list will help you grow your collection and learn more about the Berenstain Bears. And if you made it this far, you probably should join the "Berenstain Bears Collectors and Fans" group on Facebook. It's a great way to connect with other fans, ask questions, and show off your favorite treasures. -Brad

Organizational Plan

All books are organized by series/publisher, then by year of publication, and title. For clarity, in most cases the phrase "The Berenstain Bears" has been deleted and titles have been reduced to their distinct/unique nature. For example, "The Berenstain Bears and the Messy Room" is listed simply as "Messy Room."

Original editions have the book number ("B-28" on "The Big Honey Hunt," for example) printed on the spine. Beginner Books have been widely published in book club editions omit the spine marking and should indicate "Book Club Edition" on the publication page. However, to most easily distinguish between a regular commercial edition and a book club edition, the book club editions are slightly smaller and thinner. A regular edition Beginner Book or Bright & Early Book is approximately 6 ¾ x 9 ¼" in size. The book club editions are about ½" smaller in both height and width, at about 6 ¼ x 8 ¾". Also, all Beginner Books except one ("That Stump Must Go") have been re-issued with updated cover art and/or bearing a "40th Anniversary" logo. Dust Jackets were issued with early books in this series, as noted below.

Bright & Early Books (Random House)

Original editions have the book number ("BE-10" on "Bears in the Night," for example) printed on the spine; Bright and Early Books have been widely published in book club editions which are slightly smaller in size and omit this marking, as with the Beginner Books mentioned above. Several Bright and Early Beginner Books have also been re-issued with updated cover art and/or bearing a "40th Anniversary" logo. Dust Jackets were issued with early books in this series, as noted below. Several Bright and Early Beginner Books were also modified into board books (see next section).

Cub Club Books (Western Publishing/Golden Books)

Titles in the Cub Club book series were not available through traditional book retailers; this was exclusively a mail-order book club. Each shipment would contain a collection of brand new books (usually four) until a member had gotten the complete set of 34. First published by Western/Golden, the series was also published by Readers Digest Kids Books. All books in this series are hardcover; the Western/Golden editions have a matte finish and the Readers Digest editions are slightly thinner and with glossy covers. Many of the Cub Club books were used as source material for later books that were similar but (in most cases) not identical. Mike Berenstain, in his series of religious Living Lights books, utilizes these titles extensively in Christian-themed re-writes. As many identifying relationships as possible are noted below.

First Time Books / Berenstain Bears Classics (Random House)

The First Time Books series is the best-selling segment of the Berenstain Bears franchise. The series was launched in 1981 with the publication of what are now considered Books #3, 4, 5, and 6: Doctor, Moving Day, Sitter, and Dentist. New Baby (1974) and Go to School (1978) were originally published in the Random House Pictureback book series and re-branded as First Time Books after the successful launch of the 1981 books since they matched both the layout, length/level, and theme (first time experiences). The first printings of the four 1981 titles were priced at $1.25 and did not have bar codes.

The series was re-branded as Berenstain Bears Classics beginning in 2018. New editions of these books bear an updated logo and name from the publisher, though they will continue to be organized in this bibliography as First Time Books. The only book whose text and/or illustrations have been changed for is “The Bully,” which received a modest re-write with the issuance of the 2018 edition.

It should be noted that the Berenstain Bears Classics are the best-selling series in the Berenstain franchise; these square (8” x 8”) paperbacks include several titles among the best-selling children’s paperbacks of all time. The following books have each sold over three million titles: New Baby, Messy Room, Go to School, Too Much Junk Food, Meet Santa Bear, Too Much TV, Forget Their Manners, Learn About Strangers, Visit the Dentist, and The Truth). This series and its popularity peaked in the 1980s and early 1990s, the height of the Berenstain Bears franchise. At present time, many of these books continue to be best-sellers amongst the Berenstain canon. Several First Time Books were also adapted into coloring/activity books, including “Go to School” and “Too Much Birthday”, amongst others. See the Coloring/Activity Books Section for more.

NOTE: The standard commercial edition for all First Time Books was paperback. However, hardcover editions were also available in publications by Grolier (books 1-26; primarily distributed in Canada and other UK Commonwealth nations) and Turtleback Books (for libraries and educational institutions) for nearly all books in this series.

Book Club editions exist for the majority of the books in the First Time Book series. Book Club editions in this series are thinner than the standard ½” spine, thinner/cheaper covers and interior pages, and the lack of a barcode on the back cover (a blank box with just the ISBN printed).

First Time Readers (Random House)

Beginning in 2018, some titles in this series were re-branded to the Berenstain Bears Classics series; titles of this nature include Big Road Race, Blaze a Trail, and Ghost of the Forest. First Time Readers are also complicated for the fact that the series contains three books by the Berenstains (and marketed as part of the Berenstain Bears series) but not actually featuring the Berenstain Bears. Additionally (and ironically), these were the first books made in collaboration with son Michael. These are listed below, but also included in the “Other Books by Stan & Jan Berenstain” and “Other Books by Mike Berenstain” sections of the bibliography.

Several First Time Readers were also distributed in book club editions through the school market (book orders, book fairs, etc.). Generally speaking, book club editions use lower-quality paper and are missing a barcode. Several were also published by Grolier in the Canadian market, along with more than two dozen books from the First Time Books series.

HarperCollins 8x8" Square Paperback Series

This series is sometimes referred to as "First Time Books", though this designation is not official. They are, in many ways, the continuation of the Random House First Time Books series, both in terms of physical appearance and content (teaching first-time life experiences).

Following Stan Berenstain's death in November 2005, "Hug and Make Up" (December 2006) was the first book in this series with authorship credited exclusively to "Jan and Mike Berenstain." Most books in 2007 and 2008 were published under the authorship of "Stan and Jan Berenstain with Mike Berenstain."

HarperCollins Large Hardcover

The first four books in this series were published under the authorship of “Stan and Jan Berenstain with Mike Berenstain.” Therefore, “Save Christmas” was officially the first book in the Berenstain Bears series to officially carry Mike’s name. Most of the chapter books in the 1990s were illustrated by Mike but he did not have any official credit as author or illustrator. Collectors are also reminded that Mike’s name does appear as illustrator on “Day of the Dinosaurs” (1987) and “After the Dinosaurs” (1988); though released in the Berenstain Bears’ “First Time Readers” Series, the Bears themselves don’t actually appear in the books.
